G. Gordon Liddy

Outdoorster

G. Gordon Liddy is about to embark on yet another adventure, and if past experience is any indication, it should be good for a whole pile of publicity. Liddy has become almost a household word during a career as CIA agent, Watergate felon, author ("Will") and lecturer (making up to $4,000 an appearance). And now, meet G. Gordon Liddy the actor.

The vehicle is Charles Kaufman's "The Outdoorsters," a spoof on all those "Grizzly Adams" — type outdoorsy movies. No big names will be in it, but cameo appearances will include Morey Amsterdam, Willie Mays and John Cameron Swazey. Liddy filmed his scene in New York this week.
